

Florence landscape (Italian Edition)

The city of Florence is not easy to describe for its immense beauty that contrasts with its typical characteristics: it is certainly due to the unparalleled wealth of culture, art and knowledge that it deserves to be visited and admired by millions of tourists every year, and also for the role it has in the current context, for its artistic and economic vitality. The book is composed of a series of panoramic images that gives you the feeling of being part of the landscape.
