

Personal deliverance: Guide to solving lifes challenges

About the Book The book is a continuation of the first book the Gods of the land. The question is why is this book necessary? Why do need to really dig deeper into what we have discuss in the former book? What are the conjunction between, altars, idols and idolatry and the effect of the practices on people, culture, tradition, ideas, and the spiritual terrain on the life of the inhabitant? what can be say about this passage and of what importance this land shall not be my cauldron or the fullness thereof Is there anything like cauldron? Can land become ones cauldron? Are there agent, things or power that can be put in place to make a land to eat people up, devour them, consume them, and swallow them? Is it true about cases such as medical habit and situations that are demonically instigated? What are responsible for chronic habit such as suicidal tendencies, drug addiction, are there spirit behind homosexual, and certain situation that needs deliverance. What are the ways forward and is there solution? How do we Christians see infirmity and disease and how do we treat such? Is there a link between the spiritual and physical infirmities? Is it necessary for a lay man to know about little bit of medicine, and different kinds of sickness Do we need to learn thing about food that heals and nutrition and disease Please go through the book, acquire knowledge and be blessed
